EDUCATION AND TRAINING

2019: Laurea Magistrale (Master of Science) in Evolutionary and Environmental Biology (Biologia Sperimentale ed Applicata, Curriculum Evoluzione, Controllo e Tutela della Biodiversità e dell'Ambiente).

Università degli Studi di Modena e Reggio Emilia
Final grade 110/110.

MSc Thesis: "Description, age determination and taphonomic analysis on two ichthyosaur fossils from the Upper Jurassic of the Asiago Plateau (Veneto)".

2016: Laurea Triennale (Bachelor Degree) in Natural Sciences
Università degli Studi di Modena e Reggio Emilia
Final grade 110 /110 with honors.
BSc Thesis: " Description of a new Cretaceous ichthyosaur rostrum from Gombola (MO)".

2013: Scientific High School Diploma
Liceo Statale Scientifico Wiligelmo, Modena.
Final grade: 85/100
Diploma Thesis: " Extinction, the dialectic of life".

Internships

MSc Internship: Paleontological, micropaleontological and microscopy laboratory (725 h), University of Modena and Reggio Emilia

BSc Internship: Evolutionary zoology laboratory (tardigrades and micrometazoans). (150h)
University of Modena and Reggio Emilia

SCIENTIFIC SKILLS AND COMPETENCES

During my training I gained theoretical knowledge about natural sciences and I achieved basic laboratory skills in both biology and paleontology through the usage of samples preparation equipment (specimen extraction and microscope slides preparation), lab chemicals (organic and inorganic acids, intercalating agents, cold impregnation resins) and different types of optical microscopy. I have acquired skills regarding CT-scan analysis on fossil material such as the elaboration of axial slices by means of radiological software and 3D model construction. I am familiar with the use, assemblage, photography and safety measures of UV-light for excite fluorescence in fossil skeletal material as a way to create contrast with the surrounding matrix and to observe details previously unseen under natural light. I have field-applied naturalistic skills like the identification of flora, fauna, rocks, minerals and fossils. In my expertise I also count bibliographic research of scientific information and scientific writing skills, both specialistic and divulgative.

COMPUTER SKILLS AND COMPETENCES

Microsoft Office application systems.
Computer graphics and photographic processing (Adobe Photoshop)
Video Editing (Corel Video Studio)
Radiological software for DICOM images for CT scans.

ELECTRONIC SKILLS AND COMPETENCES

Use, assembly and safety measures on ultraviolet lighting systems for research purposes (fluorescence induced on fossil and organic material).

TEACHING ACTIVITY

Popular science in paleontology at the Museo Civico di Storia Naturale Augusta Redorici Roffi of Vignola during with the theme evening “Creteceous world: A new ichthyosaur from Gombola after 127 years and a 100 million”.

Popular science in paleontology for “Notte dei ricercatori” 2019 (“Jaws: l’Evoluzione a Morsi”)

Fulfillment of the 24 CFU requested by D.Lgs.vo n.59/2017 for teaching (Mnemosine, MIUR certified, platform)

Educator at the Agesci Modena 6 scout group since 2015.

Voluntary naturalistic didactic activity for Agesci scout groups.
